

Worksheet for Activity 1-2

1. Drawing from your cumulative experiences, identify and describe one important way in which you feel different from most of the people in your office, on your team, in this class, in your family, or among your friends.

2. How do you feel about this difference?

3. What might be the source or sources of the difference?

4. What are the positive and negative consequences of this difference?

5. What are the managerial implications for managing the difference?